Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Sears—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant, EDWARD HITCHCOCK.

*The works alluded to as having been examined and recommended, are as follows: A new and popular Pictorial Description of the United States, Pictorial History of the American Revolution, Scenes and Sketches of Continental Europe, Description of Great Britain and Ireland, Pictorial Family Annual, Treasury of Knowledge, Information for the People, The Family Instructor, Pictorial Sunday Book, Bible Biography, Bible History, and second series of The Wonders of the World.

Gentlemen of respectability and of good address wanted to sell the above popular Pictorial Works. Full particulars of the principles and profits of the Agency will be given on application either personally or by letter. The postage must in all cases be paid.

Our increased patronage has enabled us, during the past year, to open offices in Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans; these, in connection with our long established offices in Boston, New York, and Baltimore, enable us to offer facilities and advantages which time and experience alone could accumulate, and which we believe are unequalled.

We are prepared to make collections in any of the States, Territories, Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay particular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary facilities, and have been unusually successful.

words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word widhout a figure is fully classical and Ciceronium: with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c. degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Freund. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the recommendation superfluous; but attention to this new edition is respectfully invited, as being still more worthy than its predecessors of the distinguishel favor which the work has hitherto received.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE, BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS. BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Owing to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the navions of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet." the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Wheever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

The LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,

BLACKWOOD'S EUNKERGH MAGAKINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately bough clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Myig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesisatical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associatad with Sir David Brewster. Its liteary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simils of the Edinburgh edition.
